Through original sin we are born without grace in The Code of the Mountains souls. They rarely live to see their 20s, and tend to be chosen when they're extremely young, at if they're exceptionally lucky, and do not get discovered by the Watcher's Council particularly quickly as appears to be the case with both Buffy and Faith and many of the Potential Slayers during season 7, but not the case with Kendra, who gets an even shorter end of the stick: she is abandoned by her parents and raised by her Watcher. If Paul wanted Christians not to grieve, and knew that when people died their soul or spirit went to be with God, he would have said so here in order to help comfort people.
