Blessed: Prayer Warrior

While a full understanding of God is beyond human beings, [ ] Nanak described God as not wholly unknowable, and stressed that God must be seen from "the inward eye", or the "heart", of a human being: devotees must meditate to progress towards enlightenment and the ultimate destination of a Sikh is to lose the ego completely in the love of the lord and finally merge into the almighty creator. On the one hand, there was, champi- oned by Grellmann himself, cultural antiziganism aiming at eradicating not individuals physically, but destroying their way of life through forced assimilation.
